General Information

RESPONSIBILITY – Catawese Coach Lines, Inc acts solely in the capacity of an agent on behalf of its tour patrons and as such, arranges for transportation, lodging, admissions, sightseeing, and other services. We are not responsible for any damage, loss, delay, injury or accident due to any act or default on the part of any company or person engaged in providing transportation, lodging, admissions, sightseeing or other services which are part of the tour. Rates quoted in this brochure are based on current tariffs at the time of printing and, although we anticipate no change, rates are subject to change at or before time of final payment. Catawese Coach Lines, Inc reserves the right to withdraw or make changes in any tour that may become necessary.

RESERVATIONS – When making a reservation, the following information will be required: your name, address, daytime phone, home phone, desired pick up location and names of everyone in your party.

SEATING – With our computerized reservation system, you may request where in the coach you would like to be seated, window or aisle, front, middle or rear. By making reservations early, you'll be assured of your group sitting together and in the area of the coach you prefer.

SMOKING – Due to federal regulations, smoking is not permitted on any tour. We apologize for any inconvenience this may pose and we will make efforts to include stops en route to your destination.

DEPARTURE POINTS – All tours depart from our office on Trevorton Road, as well as Shamokin, Kulpmont, Mount Carmel, Shamokin Dam, Danville and Bloomsburg. Parking personal vehicles at pick up locations is done at your own risk and not a responsibility of Catawese Coach Lines, Inc. or the property owner.

PAYMENT POLICIES

One-Day tours - $20 per person unless otherwise indicated. Deposit required 14 days from date of reservation with balance due three weeks prior to trip date.

Overnight tours - $100 per person unless otherwise indicated. Deposit required 14 days from date of reservation with balance due one month prior to trip date.

Vacation tours - $200 per person unless otherwise indicated. Deposit required 14 days from date of reservation with balance due one month prior to trip date.

Please note: If no payment is received within the above-described time frame, we reserve the right to cancel your reservation without notification. When paying through the mail with check or money order, please be sure to specify the tour, date and names of all passengers in your group.

CANCELLATIONS – Payments received for one day tours will be refunded or transferred if notice is received in our office three weeks prior to the trip date, provided no advance purchase tickets were involved. If notice of cancellation is received less than 21 days prior to the trip date, a 50% cancellation fee will apply. No refunds or transfers approved for cancellations made 5 days prior to trip date. There will be no refunds for pre-purchased tickets such as, but not limited to, sporting events and Radio City Music Hall Christmas Spectacular. If you must cancel on such a tour, our office will attempt to resell the tickets for you, but cannot guarantee our success in doing so. Overnight and vacation tours are subject to cancellation fees if cancelled less than one month prior to departure and are based on supplier policies. There will be no refunds or transfers approved for “no-shows” the day of the tour.

LUGGAGE – One piece of luggage per person is permitted for vacation tours. A carry-on is permissible if handled personally by the passenger. Although we take care in handling luggage, we cannot assume responsibility for loss or damage. Luggage tags will be issued for one piece of luggage and we ask they remain on the luggage for the duration of the trip. Due to security, we reserve the right to inspect or refuse any luggage without prior notification.

INCLEMENT WEATHER – No matter the time of year, weather can play an integral part of tour plans. During winter months, all tours will depart as scheduled unless otherwise recommended or prohibited by the State Police or Governor. In Spring/Summer, all tours will depart as scheduled, rain or shine, unless a supplier notifies us of an event cancellation. Catawese Coach is not responsible for lack of notification on the part of the supplier prior to our scheduled departure. We reserve the right to alter an itinerary based on weather conditions.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES - Alcoholic beverages are not permitted in the passenger area of the coach on any of our tours. Coolers may be placed in the luggage compartment for later consumption.

OBJECTIONABLE PERSONS – We reserve the right for our employees to remove, from a tour, any person acting in an abusive or disruptive manner. Any passenger(s) posing a safety hazard to other passengers will be left in a public area with access to phone and shelter. These passengers will not be eligible for any type of refund.

ESCORTS – Escorts are company personnel provided to assist in the comfort and enjoyment of passengers while on board the coach. They are not “tour guides”. Responsibilities include assisting the driver, attending to passenger needs and handling of tickets and paperwork as required. Additionally, they may promote upcoming tours and enforce company policies.

GIFT CERTIFICATES – Gift certificates may be purchased at our office or via the mail, in any amount. Gift certificated accepted only for Catawese Coach Lines, Inc. tours.

SPRINGTIME IN WASHINGTON, DC
Saturday, March 31

Join us for the 100 year anniversary of the gift of cherry blossom trees from Tokyo to Washington, DC. The blooming of the cherry trees around the Jefferson Memorial has come to symbolize the natural beauty of our nation's capital city. Hundreds of thousands of city residents and visitors from across the nation and around the world come here to witness the spectacle. Washington's historic monuments are framed in springtime splendor when the Japanese cherry trees bloom. The famous trees indicate the coming of Spring with an explosion of life and color surrounding the monuments on the Tidal Basin in a sea of pink and white. After a brief driving tour of the area (traffic patterns permitting), the day is yours to do as you please. We cannot guarantee blooms will be in full bloom but we do have reasonable expectations they will be when we visit.

VIRGINIA INTERNATIONAL TATTOO
April 28-29

Tattoo derives from the Dutch phrase "doe den tap toe" - "turn off the taps" and has evolved from 17th and 18th century traditional ceremonies. The Virginia International Tattoo offers an astounding display of patriotism and the spirit of international cooperation.

Day 1, Saturday, April 28

Upon arrival to Hampton, VA, we'll check into the Country Inn & Suites. Take time to freshen up then depart for Scope Arena in Norfolk.

Tattoo Hullabaloo - Prior to each show, Scope Plaza comes alive with dancers, musicians, and much more, presented in trademark Tattoo style. Interact with artists, indulge in food from local vendors, vote in the Drum & Piper competition, grab a drink from the beer garden. Tattoo is more than a show, it's an experience.

Virginia International Tattoo—The call of the trumpets, the beat of the drums, the wail of the pipes – the mighty sounds of the Virginia International Tattoo and Centuries-old Scottish tradition with a 21st century American soul.

With 850 international performers including groups from the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, the sheer spectacle of the Virginia International Tattoo envelopes you in pageantry and patriotism. View hundreds of performers from around the world in a spectacle of music and might—a celebration of honor, patriotism and international goodwill.

Day 2, Sunday, April 29

BOSTON POPS & THE 4TH OF JULY FIREWORKS
July 3-5

Day 1, Tuesday July 3

Upon our afternoon Boston arrival, settle in to enjoy a Summer Barbeque of Hamburg, Hotdog, Italian Sausage, BBQ Breast of Chicken, Corn on the Cob, Potato Salad, Garden Salad, Freshly Baked Brownies and Cookies, Water and Soda.

After dinner sit, relax, talk and wait for the music to begin! (You are encouraged to bring a book or crossword or something to occupy your time as there is over an hour from the time dinner ends until the concert begins—this is a great time to people watch!) This evening enjoy the Boston Pops 4th of July Rehearsal Concert. This is the BEST way to actually see the Boston Pops. There are only about 30,000 people in attendance on this night versus upwards of 750,000 on the night of the 4th. GUESTS MUST BRING THEIR OWN FOLDING CHAIRS FOR THIS CONCERT.

Day 2, Wednesday July 4

Enjoy a continental breakfast at the hotel. Depart for Boston Harbor to board your ship for a Boston Harbor Cruise. On this 2 ½ hour tour you will see the USS Constitution aka “Old Ironsides” for a special photo opportunity. Constitution will get underway this Independence Day morning, during which, Sailors will exchange a 21-gun salute with Fort Independence on Castle Island and a 17-gun salute to the city of Boston in the vicinity of Coast Guard Station Boston. Next it's a tour of the harbor, while enjoying a bountiful buffet lunch with musical entertainment.

This afternoon visit the JFK Museum & Library. The museum captures the powerful story of the Kennedy years, giving visitors of all ages an uplifting, “first-hand” experience of President Kennedy's life, leadership and legacy. Dinner is on your own at the Prudential Center. “New England's #1 Shopping & Dining Destination” features over 75 shops and restaurants including Saks Fifth Avenue, Boston Duck Tours, and The Top of the Hub on the 52nd floor. Watch the fireworks from a spot along the Charles River or on the Mass Ave Bridge. Fireworks begin at 10:30pm—enjoy explosions creating a magical light show in the summer night sky!

Day 3, Thursday July 5

Enjoy a continental breakfast at the hotel. This morning embark upon your Historic Boston Tour including parts of the Freedom Trail, a visit to Old North Church and then across the Charles River to the city of Cambridge and Harvard University to see Harvard Yard. We'll end the morning at the Charlestown Navy Yard where you will see the USS Constitution—Old Ironsides. The USS Constitution was launched in Boston on October 21st, 1797 and is the oldest commissioned warship afloat in the world. Today, she is manned by an active duty U.S. Navy Crew. You can take a guided tour of Old Ironsides which will take you down three decks and back up.

There is also a Constitution Visitor's Center with memorabilia and gifts. There is also the USS Constitution Museum, a private, non-profit museum which includes a theatre, over 3,000 historical artifacts, interactive exhibits and a gift shop. You will also have time to visit the USS Cason Young, a World War II Navy destroyer. Self guided tours are available of this ship.

Lunch is on your own at Quincy Market. For over 250 years the marketplace has played an integral role in the life of Boston's residents. You will feel the cobblestones beneath your feet, see roaming performers and be able to taste the wonderfully diverse ethnic foods available to you. There are 100 shops, carts and artisans that offer treasures for you to take home with you! Depart for home mid-afternoon.

FORD'S THEATRE EXPERIENCE

Washington DC

Wednesday, July 18

On a self-guided tour of the Ford's Theatre Museum, explore Lincoln's presidency from his arrival in Washington to the very minute he arrived at Ford's Theatre the fateful night of April 14th, 1865. See rare artifacts such as the deringer used by John Wilkes Booth.

Cross the street and enter the Petersen House, the house where Lincoln died. Learn more about the people who surrounded the President in his final hours. Pending availability attend either a talk by a National Park Service Ranger that educates audiences about Civil War Washington and the events of April 14, 1865 or view the two man play - One Destiny, featuring costumed actors who portray two historical figures present the night of the assassination. Enter the newly constructed Center for Education and Leadership (opening Feb. 2012). See exhibits exploring the aftermath of the assassination, the hunt for John Wilkes Booth and the lasting impact of Lincoln's legacy. Included today is a walking tour, "History on Foot". Detective James McDevitt was on duty at the Washington Metropolitan Police headquarters, a half-block from Ford's Theatre. Join the detective as he revisits the sites and reexamines the clues from the investigation into the Lincoln Assassination Conspiracy. This tour lasts approximately 2 hours and makes at least eight stops throughout the story. The distance walked is approximately 1.4 miles from Ford's Theatre to the White House.

Cost: $82.00 per person includes transportation in a deluxe motorcoach, admissions and walking tour.

THE PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART

Saturday, August 4

In the main building's sweep of 200 captivating galleries, visitors find many surprises and changing exhibitions. There are striking Renaissance master paintings, elaborately carved stone altarpieces, and entire period rooms and architectural settings from around the world. The American collections range from fine examples of revolutionary-period furniture to the paintings of Winslow Homer and Thomas Eakins. From the world-renowned collections of French Impressionism, visitors enter the striking suite of galleries dedicated to modern and contemporary art. Across from the Museum's main building, and behind an exquisitely preserved Art Deco façade, is the newly renovated and expanded Ruth and Raymond G. Perelman Building, the first phase of a major plan to dramatically enhance and modernize the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Visitors from all over the region, across the country, and abroad are at last able to experience the Museum's collections—some of which are being placed on view for the first time—in these extraordinary new gallery spaces, as well as enjoy state-of-the-art visitor amenities, study centers, and educational resources like never before. A visitor shuttle between the Perelman Building and the Museum's main building operates every 10–15 minutes, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.
